Where Is Portwood.

Well known Citizen of Brassfield neighborhood is missing.

The wife and children of Green D. Portwood, a well known farmer of the Brassfield neighborhood are wondering what has become of husband and father who left home on the morning of the 30th of January to go to Irvine, and up to now nothing has been heard from him. His wife is almost prostrated and fear is expressed on all sides that unless some news as to her husband whereabouts is received soon, she will collapse. Those who know him best in the community in which he resides have advanced the theory now that he may be demented and wandered off into an adjoining county or in some wild portions of the mountains. Portwood is well known in Richmond. He is thirty three years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches, slightly stooped, black hair somewhat curly, scar from cut in forehead over left eye, large blue eyes, badly cut finger, also showing scar. When he left home he wore a black stiff hat, blue striped cotton shirt, new tan shoes. This description is given in the hope that he may be located not a great distance from home. He was for some time correspondent for the Climax. His address now is Richmond, Ky., R. F. D. No. 9 box 38. His domestic life, so his wife claims, has been as happy as could be, there being nothing of a strained nature at home to cause him to leave in such a manner. The day he left he was in good spirits and talked of business matters of the coming week.

John W. Sickelsmith, Greensboro, Pa., has three children, and like most children they frequently take cold. "We have tried several kinds of cough medicine," he says, "but have never found any yet that did them as much good as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." For sale by Stockton & Son.

Still Missing.

Mrs. Arthur Goebel, who a few days ago was Miss Mollie Millon, of Newby, this county, is still wondering as to the whereabouts of her husband, who left so mysteriously at their home in Lexington, taking with him $500 of her money. She has returned to the home of her father, Shelby Millon, near Jenkins store, about two miles from Newby and has up until to-day not heard a word from the man who fell in love with her at first sight courted her and then deserted her, after relieving her of a nice wad of money. Mrs. Goebel has been receiving the sympathies of her friends since the unfortunate occurrence and will likely institute proceedings for divorce unless she hears from her seemingly faithless lover within a short time.

Made Merry.

The Red Men's banquet last Wednesday evening, given by Floating Cane Tribe, of this city, was largely attended. Each member was allowed one pale face as his guest and about one hundred and fifty sat down to the spread, which was a big one in the Red Men camp. Prominent visitors were Mayor Rice, County Clerk Terrell, Attorney A. B. Burnam, Jr., and Dr. H. M. Blanton. Toastmaster James Wagers called on all the visitors and many of the members of the tribe and all responded in a happy frame of mind. Prof. Heffner of the opera house orchestra, delighted the assemblage with several selections on the piano and "Cap" Dickerson, "Uncle" Charlie Covington, Emil Lorisch and "Dick" Bailey responded, after repeated calls, for a genuine old fashioned buck and wing dance.

Incorporated.

Covington & Thorpe, the grocers have incorporated under the name of "The Covington & Thorpe Company" and the third member of the firm is Mr. R. C. H. Covington, the well known member of the firm of Covington & Banks. The officers are T. T. Covington, President, R. C. H. Covington, Vice President and S. H. Thorpe, Secretary and Treasurer. The amount is $6,500 and it will do a general retail grocery and seed business. With such excellent business men behind it, the new firm is bound to prosper and take a leading place in the commercial activities of Richmond, and Madison county. All of the three are well known in this section, having lived here all of their lives and enjoy the confidence of every residence of Madison and a wide acquaintance in adjoining counties.

Col. Elbridge C. Park, hero of many political battles in Estill county, and for many years a resident of Madison, is thinking seriously of offering himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Senator from this district, composed of the counties of Madison, Estill, Lee and Powell. The district has always gone Republican, but Col. Park says if he can get the nomination he can secure many Republican votes in Madison and Estill on account of his wide connections and very extensive acquaintance, and thereby offset the majority in Lee and Powell. With the Democratic vote solid, he could ride into office with ease. He declares that should his opponent in a last effort to defeat him attack his religion, he would win all the more easily.

Do It Now.

Richmond People Should Not Wait Until It Is Too Late.

The appalling death rate from kidney disease is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer goes gradually into grasp of diabetes, dropsy, Bright's disease, gravel or some other serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headache, dizzy spells, if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they cure where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here is one of many cases in this vicinity.

Samuel T. Greene, Holt St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I can corroborate the public statement I gave in May 1903 in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills. I cannot tell how much good Doan's Kidney Pills did me, in fact, I doubt if I would be alive were it not for them. You can continue to use my name and say that I recommend the remedy highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Notice.

Should the sale of spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors again become lawful in the City of Richmond, by the vote to be taken on March 3rd, 1911, the City Council of the City of Richmond will be petitioned to adopt the following as an ordinance of the City of Richmond, Ky:

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND, KENTUCKY:

First—That any person wishing to engage in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors by retail in any quantities in the City of Richmond, Kentucky, shall, before any license is granted to such person so to do, satisfy the City Council by proof that he or she is a person of good moral character.

Second—That the license fee to sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors by retail in any quantities in the City of Richmond, Kentucky, shall be one thousand ($1000.00) dollars for a period of one year, and license to sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall not be granted for a shorter period than one year.

Third—That any person applying to the City Council of the City of Richmond, Ky., for license to sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors by retail in any quantities in the City of Richmond, Ky., shall specify the place where such person desires to engage in such sale, and shall pay into the City Treasury of the City of Richmond, Ky., the sum of one thousand dollars when such license is granted.

Fourth—No person engaged in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in the City of Richmond, Ky., shall sell, directly or indirectly, any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors to an infant, person of unsound mind, idiot, or imbecile.

Fifth—No person engaged in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in the City of Richmond, Ky., shall permit any infant to loiter in his place of business.

Sixth—No person engaged in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in the City of Richmond, Ky., shall sell, directly or indirectly, any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors to any person or persons who at the time are drunk, or under the influence of strong drink.

Seventh—All places in the City of Richmond, Ky., where spirituous, vinous or malt liquors are sold shall be closed at 10 o'clock p. m. and opened not earlier than five o'clock a. m.

Eighth—No place in the City of Richmond, Ky., where spirituous, vinous or malt liquors are sold shall be opened on Sunday for any purpose whatever. No person engaged in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in the City of Richmond, Ky., shall sell same on Sunday.

Ninth—No billiard or pool tables, shooting galleries, bowling alleys, card tables or gambling devices of any kind, shall be kept or operated in any room where spirituous, vinous or malt liquors are sold.

Tenth—No person engaged in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in the City of Richmond, Ky., shall permit prostitutes or lewd women to loiter in, or loiter around his place of business, nor shall spirituous, vinous or malt liquors be sold to any such persons.

Eleventh—Any person engaged in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in the City of Richmond, Ky., who shall violate the law by selling any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors on Sunday shall be fined by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars. Upon the conviction of any person for a violation of the Sunday law, the license granted to such person to sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in the City of Richmond, Ky., shall be at once revoked, and such person shall not again be granted a license to engage in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in the City of Richmond, Ky. No part of the license fee shall be refunded to any person whose license is revoked under this ordinance. 3t

Fuzzled.

An aged colored man was passing a fish store when he stopped to examine a huge turtle chained in the doorway as an advertisement.

He had never seen a turtle before, and he provided the strange creature curiously. Suddenly he popped his finger into his mouth with a howl of pain. After the finger had stopped bleeding he gazed at it ruefully, then eyed the turtle apprehensively.

"What's the matter, Rastus?" asked the fish dealer, with a grin.

"Nuffin," said Rastus. "Ah was jest wonderin' whether Ah had been bit or stung."—Lippincott's.

The Artistic Temperament.

A famous singer was undergoing the ministrations of the hair barber.

"I open," said the barber, "that we shall 'ave the pleasure of 'earin' you at the concert tonight."

"No," explained the famous singer, "I've had a long and tiring season in America and within a few days I am to open in London. I have decided not to do anything on this voyage."

"The same way with me," said the barber understandingly. "When I'm hashore I never looks at a razor."—Success Magazine.

A Legal Holiday.

"Bindsworth seems rather loth to upon his wife with awe."

"Yes, I met him yesterday, and he wanted to borrow $5 from me. I asked him why he didn't go to his bank for it, and he replied with surprise that he was unable to conceal:

"Why, bless me! I'd forgotten that the banks were open today, just the same. You see, this is my wife's birthday."—Chicago Record-Herald.

This Hard, Cruel World.

Mrs. Corcoran—You can have all the bread and butter you want, but no more cake.

Willie—Say, ma, how is it I can never have a second helping of any of the things I like?—Lippincott's.

Vulgarity.

"Why do you say he is vulgar?"

"Because he has at least ten times as much money as he has."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Free Child's Remedy

What mother is not looking for something that will help her children in the little ills of the day? Is there anything for the stomach trouble and the bowel trouble? Long ago she probably has become convinced that a child cannot readily swallow a pill or a tablet, and that to "break them in half and crush them" is an annoyance, that usually they work too drastically, and are nauseating and too powerful for the little one's stomach.

Any mother who takes the trouble of sending her name and address can obtain a free sample bottle of a remedy that thousands of other mothers are using and which is especially adapted to the little child's system. It is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and the offer of a free bottle is open to any mother who has not yet used it. Having used it, you will know it is the best thing for your child's stomach. It is the best way to begin on it. Mrs. L. Louville, R. F. D. 1710, 1710 Coke street, Louisville, Ky., writes: "I have used your free sample and now they write that they have had a bottle in the house since."

It is undoubtedly a great family remedy as it is adapted to all ages, being mild and pleasant to take and yet thorough in its action. It is especially the ideal remedy for children and women and also for the aged. It is a natural, safe and reliable remedy, and yet contains no toxic properties. Use it for the most common ailments of children and women, such as indigestion, sour stomach and flatulence, and it will cure.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. I explain your case in a letter and will reply to you by mail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's name, Dr. W. C. Caldwell, R. F. D. 1710, 1710 Coke street, Louisville, Ky.

CAUGHT BY DRIVER ANTS.

Exciting Experience In West Africa With These Deadly Pests.

The driver ants are a terrible pest in West Africa. Crawling over the ground in countless thousands, invincible to anything but a wall of fire, they bring quick death to every live thing unfortunate enough to be caught in their path and leave behind them the skeletons of lizards, rats, sheep, cattle and even human beings. In his book entitled "We Two In West Africa" Major F. G. Guggisberg recounts the terrors of one night when the pests invaded his house:

I heard voices calling, "Get up; the ants are on us!" Sitting bolt upright, I found the room apparently in darkness. In reality the lantern on the floor at the foot of the bed was still burning, but as I threw my hand out and felt the heavy weight of the mosquito net I suddenly realized that it was coated with ants so thickly that it kept the light out as effectively as a velvet curtain.

Two bounds took me out of that mosquito net and the but, but it was an uncanny feeling when my feet crunched through the living carpet of ants. Hitting the side of the doorway in my hasty exit, I brought down a shower of the little pests on my head and shoulders from rafter, wall and roof, and then the fun began.

Some people say that the ant buries his head in you and leaves it there, others that he drives some other part of his body into you. I didn't worry about examining which theory was correct. It did not affect the torture of the result. For the next ten minutes I was standing in a state of nature in the open, the rain beating down and the boys, hastily aroused, picking ants off my body by the light of torches.

I was so engrossed in this new sport that I quite forgot about Lees; then I suddenly realized that he was not there. I won a moral V. C. by going into that infernal place and hauling him out. He was a pitiable sight in the torchlight, his hair waving as if in a breeze as the ants crawled through it, his body black with them.

To pick them off was too slow a job. I seized a tin of kerosene oil and poured it over him, sweeping the enemy off in thousands. One of my flaming torches rushed up with a flaming torch, meaning in the kindness of his heart to give master more light. I yelled to him to keep away, and he, thinking he was being urged, rushed toward us quicker than ever. Luckily Lees' cook stopped him in time, and a tragedy was averted.

We spent the remainder of the night under a tree, one of the children, cut the firewood, brings in the mango, the smarting pain of the ant bites—we could not help laughing at the idea of our helplessness against ants and bugs, which may occupy our comfortable beds. However, the only thing to do was to wait patiently until they cleared out.

A Repulsive People.

The inhabitants of Dutch New Guinea are not an attractive race. "The native woman," says Dr. Erle Marshall, the explorer, "is ugly, and the children, cut the firewood, brings in the mango, the smarting pain of the ant bites—we could not help laughing at the idea of our helplessness against ants and bugs, which may occupy our comfortable beds. However, the only thing to do was to wait patiently until they cleared out."

Evening Schools.

Evening schools owe their existence to the Rev. Thomas Charles, who about 1811 set up one at Bala, Wales, which proved to be quite successful. In 1839 or 1840 the English Bishop Hinds strongly recommended such schools for poor adults, who, on account of enforced labor, had no chance to secure an education. The idea was taken in hand by the British privy council in 1861, and from that date evening schools began to be considered seriously. At the present time they are numerous throughout Great Britain, America and many other leading nations.—New York American.

BEN BUTLER'S BLUFF.

It Was Well Worked and Completely Fooled General Bingham.

General John A. Bingham was a member of the military tribunal that tried Mrs. Burratt and the Lincoln assassination conspirators.

After the trial in the subsequent debates in the house General B. Burratt frequently charged that the commission had arrived at an unjust verdict and had convicted an innocent woman. In a memorable debate he boldly proclaimed that if the contents of a diary which had been found on the dead body of J. Wilkes Booth were ever made public it would disclose the fact that it contained the proof of Mrs. Burratt's innocence, which proof had been infamously suppressed by the commission. When General Bingham made a movement as though he would reveal such an accusation, Butler dramatically drew a memorandum book from his breast pocket and held it aloft, but did not utter a word. Bingham naturally supposed that Butler had a copy of a diary such as he had spoken of. As a matter of fact the book contained nothing but blank leaves. General Butler was just bluffing.

The diary was in possession of Secretary Stanton, but President Johnson finally demanded it. It was an interesting book, but it threw no light upon the great conspiracy.

Milk and Popped Corn.

Because he knew his patient the doctor was not at all ruffled when she exclaimed:

"But I can't, doctor; it is no use talking, I just can't. I hate milk. I can't drink it. I will take any kind of medicine you wish me to, but I cannot swallow sweet milk."

"Very well," he said soothingly. Then he opened the door, and from the kitchen there drifted in the smell of popping corn.

"Who is popping corn?" she asked.

"Your nurse," said the doctor.

"Half an hour later he persuaded her to taste a spoonful of milk.

"Why, that's not so bad after all," she said.

"What did you do to it?"

"Soaked that popped corn in it," said he. "Gives it an entirely different taste, doesn't it? Sweet milk's bitterest enemy is bound to say it is drinkable after it has soaked up the essence of popped corn for ten or fifteen minutes."—New York Sun.

"Good Things to Eat"

That's all we carry. Whether it's a simple like sugar, or a fancy table delicacy, like imported cheese, we have it, and in a quality absolutely dependable. Every product that enters this store must stand rigid examination. Each article is chosen from many brands offered, because it has proved its superior merit. Each brand competes for preference, and none gains a place on our shelves if it fails to measure up to our high standard of quality. One of the recent successful contestants for representation in our line is a smooth and golden blend of selected highland grown beans—the choicest of choice.

The Electa process of slow-cooking and dry-curing preserves the genuine coffee flavor and improves it.

In using Electa Coffee you are sure of the finest quality—a satisfaction that in itself would make Electa worth more than other coffees.

Compare it with any you ever drank before. You'll like the roasting flavor and the delicious aroma.

Avoid Harsh Drugs

Many Cathartic Tend to Cause Injury to the Bowels.

If you are subject to constipation, you should avoid strong drugs and cathartics. They only give temporary relief and their reaction is harmful and sometimes more annoying than constipation. They in no way effect a cure and their tendency is to weaken the already weak organs with which they come in contact.

We honestly believe that we have the best constipation treatment ever devised. Our faith in it is strong that we sell it on the positive guarantee that it shall not cost the user a cent if it does not give entire satisfaction and completely remove constipation. This preparation is called REXALL ORDELTES. These are prompt, soothing and most effective in action. They are made of a recent chemical discovery. Their principal ingredient is odorless, tasteless and colorless. Combined with other well known ingredients, long established for their usefulness in the treatment of constipation, it forms a tablet which is eaten just like candy. They may be taken at any time, either day or night, without fear of their causing any inconvenience whatever. They do not gripe, purge nor cause nausea. They act without causing any pain, or excessive looseness of the bowels. They are ideal for children, weak, delicate persons and aged people as well as for the most hearty person. They come in two size packages, 12 tablets 10 cents, 36 tablets 25 cents. Remember you can obtain them only at The Retail Store, H. L. Perry Richmond, Ky.

He has spent the winter on his father's farm near Milford and is in grand condition. It looks as if he will make good to a certainty."

New Miller

Mr. Joseph Eitel, of Pochontas, Ill., has arrived to take the position of head miller at the Zeng roller mills. Mr. William Carter, who has been holding down this position for a long time, has resigned and will go to farming. For some time Mr. Carter's health has become considerably impaired and he is seeking the open air life.

Hard Luck.

Sheriff McCord, never has much hard luck, so he says, but when it does come it is pretty heavy. Last Wednesday his fine Rex Arbutuck mare fell, while running in the pasture, and broke her leg. It was necessary to kill the animal as she was beyond medical aid. She was valued at $5,000.

Boosting

Secretary Culbertson, to President Crabbe, of the Normal school, has just had issued from the Climax job department a large number of attractive posters, giving full details of the Summer School which begins in June. His knowledge of the Normal work and keen insight into every department of the school, is being constantly spoken of, by those who know, in a highly complimentary manner.

New Machine

The opera house management has installed a brand new Edison moving picture machine and the films, no matter how old, are made clear and distinct. A moving picture machine of this type is one of the most delicate and must be handled with great care, hence it requires the services of an expert. Few people realize what ability it requires to operate a machine like this perfectly.

Looks Bright

Only a few dollars of the one thousand to be raised by the new ball club are now subscribed, and it is certain that this amount will be forthcoming today, which is the last day set for the raising of this amount. President Herington and his assistants are elated over the generous spirit shown by the citizens, and all that remains toward a prosperous year is good weather. There will be five directors appointed by the President this week, one for each department, and the season will be handled in a systematic way. If the soliciting committee hasn't seen you, call and make a donation, no matter how small.

Circuit Court

Comes to a Close Today, After a Grind of Three Weeks and Two Days

The February term of the Madison circuit court will come to a close today, after being in session for the past three weeks. Of course the docket is well up, as Judge Benton keeps things on the move and there is positively no lagging or unnecessary continued cases. All last week was taken up with civil business.

One of the most twisted cases that has been on the civil docket in a long time was a suit of Beverly Broadbent against B. M. Stagger which involved 100 bushels of corn. Prominent witnesses for both sides made the case so complicated that the jury was compelled to go to the corn crib of the defendant and examine, in order to arrive at a verdict, which returned to the plaintiff a quantity of corn. There are as yet no other announced candidates, but it is claimed that Woodson May, of Somerset, may enter the race.

The jury gave a verdict of $150 against the administrator of Dr. David Bennett in favor of Dr. Heath, who sought to recover $2,000 for medical services rendered. The commonwealth had one case Saturday, that of "Squire Williams," who was given a fine of $25 and 10 days in jail for carrying concealed weapons. The tax suit of Berea College was called, but was continued on motion of attorneys for both sides.

Murray Will Ride

Attorney Murray Smith is the latest auto enthusiast in Richmond to invest in a 1911 car. Last week he purchased from the Citizen's Motor Car Company, of this city, one of its fast little 20 horse power Flanders, two-passenger, and he will enjoy the coming season with his new purchase. The above company is agent for this car in this locality.

Coming In

Madison county people in Florida are favoring their friends and relatives at home with boxes of oranges and grape fruit. Just think of it. Letters from the land of sunshine say all are happy and well and having a great time. Did you ever stop to think how many Madison county people spend the winter in Southern clime? And their stay away from home is made all the more happy by the weekly visits of the Climax.

Seems a Go

The idea of a tobacco manufactory for this county is not just talk, but in all probability a reality. It will take about $50,000 to start it, and this amount could be raised right here in Madison, but the promoters will give other counties a chance to get in on the "ground floor" and will likely spend as much as $75,000. Prominent men in the county behind the move. Mr. Kit Chenault says it is easier to do than pool the crop of the county.

Missing

Another resident of the county has left home mysteriously and his family are wondering as to his whereabouts. It is Jesse Woodson Kelley, who has been a tenant on the farm of Mr. James Crutcher for the past year. Several weeks ago he left home, ostensibly to come to town for some groceries, and has not been heard from since. His family have been in dire straits and Mr. Crutcher has been keeping the wolf from the door until last Wednesday, when relatives and small children were sent there. Kelley's desertion of his family cannot be accounted for.

Low Rates

On account of the Southern Commercial Congress, which convenes in Atlanta on March 8th to 10th, the L. & N. will sell reduced tickets for the round trip and several will take advantage of this offer from Central Kentucky. President Taft is to be one of the chief speakers.

He's Tough

A lad giving his name as George M. Davis, of Jackson county, was jailed Sunday evening by Sheriff McCord, after he had leisurely puffed away at a cigarette in the opera house during the local onion speaking. A pair of brass knuckles were taken from him by the sheriff, and it is claimed he used pepper from the balcony to annoy the occupants of the lower floor. When questioned, he said he was just here on a pleasure trip.

Greene Here

Mr. Robert L. Greene, of Frankfort, was in the city Saturday shaking hands with his numerous friends. He is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Clerk of Court of Appeals, and is a sure winner. He is one of the best men in the state for the place, as he has served for years as deputy in the office. There are as yet no other announced candidates, but it is claimed that Woodson May, of Somerset, may enter the race.

Sheep Money

The sufferers from sheep killing dogs the past year will get about $5 per cent. on the dollar for their claims, as the number of claims exceeded the number of dogs by about 200. Each dog is assessed at $1 per head and there were but 1,100 to pay off damages to the amount of $1,300. Madison was quite fortunate when it is taken into consideration that there are thousands of sheep raised in this county. The dog list shows nearly 3,000 for 1911, and if the damages hold about the same there will be enough to pay dollar for dollar.

To Mobile.

President J. G. Crabbe, of the Normal school, was in Mobile, Ala., last week attending the National Education Association. Kentucky was honored with three speakers for the session of Friday afternoon, the 24th. Dr. Crabbe was leader of the Round Table discussion and prominent educators from all over the country replied to different sections of the interesting topic, which was, "A Story of Achievement and Endeavor to Co-operation." Supt. Coates was on the program, but on account of his duties here could not attend.

King Is Lucky

The two-headed, two-bodied, six-legged monstrosity of a mule, which was foaled several days ago at Kingston and brought to the Azbill livery stable as a curiosity, will very likely make a rich man out of Contractor Jesse King, Jr. Mainhart, who officiated at the birth of the monstrosity, was presented with the freak by Mr. Azbill, the owner of the dam, but after receiving an offer of $5,000 from Mr. King, concluded it was best for him to sell. This is where he seems to have made a mistake. Mr. King took the freak of nature to Cincinnati last week and paid $45 to have it mounted by an expert. While there it was seen by many, and one man offered him $500 shortly after arriving in the city. He will bring it to Richmond some time the latter part of this month, as it takes a long time to prepare the bodies for mounting. He will have it on exhibition here April court day. He has received several offers, but will not sell now, realizing what a gold mine he has. He will likely quit the contracting business for the present and go on the road with his money-making attraction.

HON. L. B. HERRINGTON

Who will shortly announce himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative. Mr. Herrington represented Madison in the last General Assembly, and his enviable record on behalf of his constituents is well known to every person in the county.

Deaths

Few deaths have been announced in this county that caused more widespread regret than that of James C. Lackey, whose sudden demise occurred last Monday morning, about six o'clock, at his home about a mile from Richmond on the Lexington pike. He was in his sixtieth year, and a man whom everybody called a friend. Several days ago he was stricken with acute indigestion, but his friends were not aware of his serious condition, as he was out in a few days and seemingly in the best of health. He was a son of the late Andrew Lackey and had lived all of his life in Madison, serving as jailer two terms, following in the footsteps of his father, who was honored with the same office many years before. Mr. Lackey was prominent in fraternal orders, being a Mason, Elk and Odd Fellow and seldom missed a meeting. His jovial spirit won for him friends unlimited and gave him a popularity that it was hard for politics to defeat. His aged mother, Mrs. Margaret Lackey, survived him, having resided in Richmond for many years. Besides his wife, who was Miss Eliza Bowen, of Estill county, he is survived by four sisters, Mrs. J. D. Dykes, Mrs. H. C. Rice, Mrs. Lucy Lackey Moore, of this city, Mrs. Ohio Lyle, of Ford, and Mr. Jay Lackey, of Richmond. The children surviving are Mrs. T. B. Collins, Mrs. Carl Todd, Mrs. W. W. Williamson, of Minnesota, and Messrs. B. M. Lackey Bowen Lackey and Miss Georgina Lackey.

Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at the home, beginning at 5 o'clock, by Elder E. B. Barnes, his pastor, and interment will follow in the Richmond cemetery, under escort of Masonic Lodge, of which he was a member.

The news of the death of John McKenna, which occurred at his home in Lexington Thursday morning after a lingering illness, was received here with regret by many friends and relatives. He was for many years a resident of Madison. Funeral took place Saturday morning at St. Peter's church in that city, followed by burial in the Catholic cemetery.

Another young woman is cut down in

ly. He is strong for a revision of the present system of taxation and many other excellent measures that he will fight for, and he has some force, too, on the floor of the house.

Up Salt River.

The boat will start up Salt River promptly at six o'clock p. m. Friday March 3d. All "Wets" will be given free passage. No others need apply.

Shouting and Whistling.

It's all over now but the "shouting." The "Wets" are whistling to keep up their courage. Boys, let's just make it unanimous.

Lunch at The Pells.

The ladies of Richmond will serve hot coffee and lunch at the Pells all day Friday March 3d. All "Wets" will be given free passage. No others need apply.

Take to the Woods.

There are a few "Wets" still in town but they are fast taking to "the tall timber." By Friday March 3d there will be very few left and they will be ashamed to show their heads so the election will be declared unanimous for the "Drys."

A Lie Nailed.

The negro voters are being told many silly things, among which is this: that more negroes are arrested than white folks. This is a falsehood. The police records show 176 white and 118 colored arrests for 1910-11 or 58 more whites than blacks.

No Sunday Ball

A special from Maysville says: "The first step toward preventing Sunday baseball here this season was taken today when seven preachers issued a set of resolutions, calling on the people to stay away from the games. Four pastors refused to sign it. The latter are Rev. Messrs. Penn, Clarke and Haymer and Father P. M. Jones."

False Alarm.

A wild cat of the domestic species, which had entered the kitchen at the home of County Clerk Robert Terrell last Wednesday about ten o'clock, caused an alarm of fire to be turned in. Mr. Terrell's children heard the noise and were so frightened that Louise, the ten year old daughter dashed out of the house and to the home of a neighbor, where she apprised them that the house was on fire. Before the other occupants of the home could intercept her, the alarm was in and the company responded. Clerk Terrell was a guest at the Red Men's banquet, and had just finished his response to a toast, when he was notified that the alarm called for his residence.

Busy Man.

Mat Cohen is a busy man. He was in Richmond last Wednesday and Thursday, having been summoned to the bedside of his father-in-law, Col. John Wagers. Mr. Cohen has been in twenty states and territories and also Canada since the first of the year, judging in horses and cattle shows. He goes to Fort Worth, Texas, next week as the presiding judge at the annual Horse show. He came to Richmond from Kansas City and left here Thursday afternoon for a two days stay in Columbus, Ohio.

Beats It.

Mayor Rice is gratified to know that the financial statement of the city of Danville, fell away short of Richmond, which appeared in The Climax two weeks ago. The Richmond statement showed a balance in the treasury of over $14,000 while Danville had but $2,000. A friend of the Mayor's in Danville sent him a paper with the statement, but it seems as if the Danville friend had never seen the Richmond statement. Mayor Rice very quickly mailed him one.

Miss Allman Wins.

Miss Carrie Allman, representing the Freshman class of Caldwell High School, was the successful contestant at the annual declamatory contest held last Wednesday in the auditorium. The judges were Prof. McDougle, Prof. Johnson and Prof. McCullough, of the Normal School. Miss Allman's subject was "The Old Settler's Story" and the young lady handled it in such a masterful way, that the judges were not long in rendering a decision. Second honors went to Mr. James Cobb, representing the Junior class. The orchestra music, was a feature of the occasion and everybody was delighted with the musical program. Mr. Harold Barker, President of the Senior class, acted as chairman and introduced the speakers. Fifty dollars was taken in which goes toward paying the lighting expenses of the auditorium.

Too Young.

The basket ball team of the Paris High School came very near not being able to participate in its contest with the Normal School team last Wednesday afternoon. The youngsters, who compose the team, are all under lawful age, and when they arrived in Richmond they immediately hid themselves to a local pool room for a social game. It is a heavy fine to be over for minors to be caught in a pool room and Sheriff McCord was sent by the Grand Jury to bring each one before that body to testify against the operators of the pool room. When he arrived at the gymnasium, the game was about to be started, but he had to bring the youngsters to the jury room where a patched up team was compelled to represent the Paris school.

Home Again

Grand Master Burnam, of Kentucky Masonry, and Grand Treasurer, Stockton, of the Grand Commandery, K. T., who have been at Alexandria, Va., on official business, returned Friday much pleased with their trip. While away they visited Washington, but a determined effort to see the President proved futile. Anyhow they were shown around the Capital by Senator Paynter, and had a good time meeting prominent men from all parts of the country. Mr. Stockton never failed to let those he met know that Richmond would be in the Blue grass league this year with a winning team, and gave a general invitation to all the solons to visit the leading city of the fourth class in Kentucky, at their earliest convenience. He was sorely disappointed that he could not extend the invitation in person to President Taft. They brought home a beautiful series of post cards of the lodge room, where Washington presided, which they distributed to their friends.

The Judge Spoke

At the annual banquet at Winchester Thursday evening, given by the Commercial Club, Judge James Benton responded to the toast, "May Factory," which was one of the strongest speeches of the evening. The judge urged a better environment for the boys, that the present generation and those to come, especially in this section, would be such that Kentucky would take her place at the leading city of the fourth class in Kentucky, at their earliest convenience. He was sorely disappointed that he could not extend the invitation in person to President Taft. They brought home a beautiful series of post cards of the lodge room, where Washington presided, which they distributed to their friends.

A Quiet Nap

Mr. Leslie P. Evans was awakened early Sunday morning by a terrible shaking of the front door at his residence on Lancaster avenue, and thinking a burglar had gained an entrance, he grabbed his pistol and went to make an investigation. From the rear end of the hall he could hear heavy breathing, as if someone in a dying condition. He turned on the light suddenly and stood ready to meet the intruder with his weapon, when his eyes caught sight of a well known citizen of the county lying prostrate on the floor just inside the door. He walked up to where the man lay, and a hasty examination revealed the fact that the intruder was laboring under a glorious "jag," and is supposed to have concluded he had reached his home and just "fell in." The patrol wagon, with officers Powers and Potts, was called and the gentleman was taken into custody. He had passed through the ordeal by Sunday afternoon sufficiently to be able to continue his journey homeward.
